Victorian Managed Insurance Authority (VMIA) acknowledges the Traditional Custodians of the land on which we do business, and we pay our respects to Elders past and present. We acknowledge the important contribution that Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples make in creating a thriving Victoria.

Community service organisations deliver essential services to members of the public that need it most. Supporting the Victorian community and delivering these vital services can carry significant financial and reputational risk. VMIA's Community Service Organisations' (CSO) insurance program provides insurance coverage for eligible community service organisations funded by Victorian Government departments.

Frequently asked questions

How can we receive a certificate of currency?

A certificate of currency is proof of your insurance. Before 1 July each year, we'll email you with instructions on how to access your renewal certificates of currency via the VMIA portal.

You can download copies of your insurance policy documentation including certificates of currency anytime by logging into the VMIA portal. If you require assistance please visit our VMIA Portal Help Centre: VMIA portal help centre.

Are our volunteers covered?

Yes, volunteers who work for your organisation are covered while volunteering on your behalf.

Volunteers are covered for claims made against them by third parties alleging property damage, bodily injury or financial loss under your Program. They are also covered if they get injured while volunteering on your behalf.

Are contractors covered under our Program?

No, contractors are not covered.

You should request a copy of their certificate of currency to ensure they are adequately insured. However, contractors who are receiving payment for providing educational, training services or training-related activities on behalf of your organisation, are covered.

Do we have to notify VMIA of every activity or event?

It is not necessary to notify VMIA of every activity or event your organisation engages in. The Program provides insurance coverage for your involvement in events such as sausage sizzles, market stalls, functions or excursions; however, your organisation must authorise and have control of the activity or event.

Your organisation's board or committee of management must be satisfied that the organisation has enough capability to engage in the activity. This would require the application of risk management to identify, assess and treat potential risks before approving the proposed activity.

Are our organisation's buildings and contents covered? What about construction activities?

No, there is no cover for your building or contents. In addition, motor vehicles, goods in transit or workers compensation, are not covered by the Program. Construction activities are not covered. If you are using a builder, make sure they hold contract works and construction liability insurance.

Can this Program be extended to cover contents or any other liability?

No, your Program is arranged and premium funded by the Department of Families, Fairness and Housing (DFFH). If you need any insurance cover outside the Program, please contact your insurance broker.

We have people and groups outside our organisation offering to raise funds for us. Are their activities covered under our Program?

If the fundraising event is not run or controlled by your organisation, then your insurance does not cover these people or groups.

Are people who attend our event covered under our Program?

No, people who participate in your events are not covered. Your organisation, its employees and volunteers are covered for any legal liability arising out of their negligence to a third-party including participants.

Are stall holders covered under our Program at a community event we organise?

No, stall holders are not covered, and you should request a copy of their certificate of currency to ensure they have adequate insurance cover.

Are goods sold and/or products manufactured by our organisation covered?

Yes, your Program covers you for personal injury or property damage claims arising from any goods sold and/or products manufactured for which you are legally liable.

Can you assist us with our risk management obligations?

VMIA has several useful risk management resources available on our website, including guides, tools and templates, to help you implement and improve your organisation's risk management practices.

Are we covered while transporting clients to functions or events?

If an injury occurs while you are transporting someone to a function or event, this would typically be covered by statutory third-party insurance (TAC in Victoria), not VMIA. Third-party insurance is only valid if a vehicle's registration is current, so ensure any vehicle you use is registered and all fees are paid.

We will be hiring a venue or leasing temporary premises for our event. Are we covered?

Yes, you are covered for your negligence at any premises in Victoria, or any temporary premises or venue you may lease or hire. However, it will not cover any negligent acts of the landlord, guests, customers or participants.

We will be leasing a room at our premises to a third-party group. Will our Program cover this?

You are covered for your negligence to third parties as a property owner, but your Program will not cover any negligent acts of the hirer, guests, customers or participants.

An unincorporated community group has asked for cover under our Program. Are we able to provide this? Can we auspice them?

Your Program, in certain circumstances, accommodates cover for auspice arrangements. This has the benefit of enabling unincorporated community groups with limited economic resources to access your insurance cover as the auspice body. It aims to support the unincorporated group carrying out activities that align to your own purpose and objectives, and this arrangement does not extend to incorporated groups.

You should contact VMIA to determine if a group can be auspicied.

What do we do in the event our organisation ceases to exist or is merged with another organisation?

You must contact VMIA and notify the relevant funding department when you become aware of this. You must also advise VMIA of any claims, outstanding matters or incidents that could give rise to a claim.

Once your organisation ceases or is merged with another organisation, your Directors and Officers Liability Policy will provide automatic run-off cover for up to seven years.

Are we covered for activities for which we receive funding?

Subject to the terms, conditions and exclusions of your organisation's policies you are covered for all activities undertaken by your organisation within your insured business as defined in your policy schedules, irrespective of how the activities are funded. Unless you have applied for Australia-wide cover, your cover is restricted to activities originating in Victoria.

What if we lose our departmental funding?

If you lose your funding, the relevant department will inform VMIA that your organisation is no longer eligible and advise if cover under the Program will continue or cease. You should also confirm the validity of your insurance period with your department. If cover is to cease, we will advise you in writing and allow you 30 days from your end date of funding to arrange alternative insurance.

Is the organisation insured against employment practices violations such as unfair dismissal and discrimination claims?

Yes, your organisation and its directors, officers and employees are covered for claims (including reasonable legal, accounting and other professional fees) alleging an employment practices violation.

If we appoint additional or alternate directors during the year, are they covered?

Any new or additional directors who are appointed during the year are automatically covered.

If a director resigns, are they still covered?

Yes, directors who resign are covered while this insurance remains current. The cover provides protection for these directors while they acted on behalf of your organisation, for as long as this insurance remains in force.

Is my organisation covered for Formal Investigations?

Yes, all Professional Indemnity products now cover your organisation for legal representation costs to respond to a formal administrative or formal regulatory inquiry by a governmental, regulatory, self-regulatory, professional, statutory or official body or institution body.

Do we need to notify incidents to VMIA?

Yes, you are required to notify VMIA immediately if your organisation becomes aware of an incident which may give rise to a future claim. You can lodge incident notifications by logging into the VMIA portal. All incident notifications should be lodged through the portal.

This must be done in addition to reporting the incident to your funding department. If you fail to promptly notify VMIA of an incident you may not be protected in respect of any subsequent claim. If in doubt, report it or contact VMIA for advice.

How do I lodge a claim?

All claims should be lodged by logging into the VMIA portal.

If you require support, you can contact us on 03 9270 6900.

To avoid prejudice to your organisation's rights under the Program you should not settle a claim or admit liability without first obtaining VMIA's written approval to do so.

Is my organisation covered for coronavirus?

We aim to address every client's individual circumstance and assist them in understanding their coverage. For more information and general guidance on how VMIA insurance policies may respond for first and third-party exposures arising from coronavirus, please refer to our website.

In regard to institutional child sexual abuse, does this Program meet the appropriate requirements for insurance cover under the Victorian Funding Guideline for Services to Children?

Yes, your Program meets the requirements for insurance cover under the Victorian Funding Guideline for Services to Children. However, some historical incidents may not be covered. You should notify VMIA immediately of any claims of institutional child sexual abuse against your organisation.
